

Musical Entertainment with Mike Ruff

For Care Homes, Luncheon
Clubs, and others

Always entertaining with many stories to tell. A fine singing voice and a virtuoso of the accordion

Plenty of different options to choose from

What they said:

"I have rarely seen our residents so enthusiastic"

"Most entertaining afternoon and they kept asking when he was coming back"

"Mike's range is astounding. Every time we ask for a new theme, he finds new material and really enters into the spirit of things"

"A real breath of fresh air to get everyone singing like that"

- The ever-popular MUSIC AND MEMORIES

Lots of songs and tunes with plenty of opportunities to join in.

- Beside the Seaside - songs of the sea with a few shanties thrown in
- Oom Pah Pah - your own Oktoberfest with German tunes and drinking songs and even the lederhosen
- The European Tour - Tunes & more than a few songs from all round Europe
- The Parisian Café - the accordion, the tunes, a few songs from Charles Aznavour, Edith Piaf & Charles Trenet with a few fun songs plus the stripy shirt and beret
- Great Chieftain of the Pudding Race - a celebration of Robbie Burns and all things Scottish
- A Bit of the Blarney - St Patrick's Day with a full repertoire of Irish songs, jigs, and reels
- Halloween theme and Christmas Events

Costume, Drama and Themes, Choose From:

Pied Piper, Henry VII, a Cavalier, a Georgian Gentleman or a Music Hall Maestro

There may be more that he hasn't thought of yet!

Mike performs widely and is happy to travel reasonable distances from St Albans to entertain you
